Ŷ	CLASSIFICATION TO THULL A COLOR OF THE	- 2-
SOUNTRY.	Carrows (Carrows)
	KCPUK!
VC: 10 property and	former Amminition Denot in Rellenhagen	25
EVALUATIO	PLACE OBTAINED	CONTRACTOR OF CONTRACTOR CONTRACTOR CONTRACTOR
DATE OF CO	ACCOMPANIES TO THE PROPERTY OF	25X1
DATE OBTAI	INE	25X1 25X1
REFERENCE	DATE PREPARED 16 February 7051	ZO/(I
	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·	est of the section appropriate and the section is a section in the section in the section in the section is a section in the section in the section in the section is a section in the section in the section in the section is a section in the secti
REMARKS	1 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) 2 - stratches on distant	Parkane, surveyed to the parket of the base
ICMARNO		entremony - months are not supplied to the
Antonios (Alexandra) anterior de la companya (Alexandra) (Alexandr	10 0T 10 0T	A 25X
2.	On 16 January 1951, it was learned that the repair work in the undergroup bunkers at Falkenhagen was completed. The last German fitters were discharged between 3 and 13 January. a total of 196 rooms, including reception and conference rooms, and rooms 10 men, in addition to a gymnasium and kitchens, were prepared. * At present, one three-story brick building, quartering shout 100 and the present of the pre	25X
	a total of 196 rooms, including reception and conference rooms, and rooms 10 men, in addition to a symmasium and kitchens, were prepared. * At present, one three-story brick building, quartering about 400 soldiers wearing black-bordered crimson epaulets, is occupied. The soldiers were restricted to their quarters, and the unterground bunker was off-limits them. The unit at the installation was not equipped with motor vehicles; only four horses were available for hauling supplies. On 29 December 1950, billeting equipment was shipped to the installation on 14 trucks of the Volkereling equipment was shipped to the installation.	25X 3 for 3 to
	a total of 196 rooms, including reception and conference rooms, and rooms 10 men, in addition to a symmasium and kitchens, were prepared. * At present, one three-story brick building, quartering about 400 soldiers wearing black-bordered crimson epaulets, is occupied. The soldiers were restricted to their quarters, and the unterground bunker was off-limits them. The unit at the installation was not equipped with motor vehicles, only four horses were available for hauling supplies.	25X
	a total of 196 rooms, including reception and conference rooms, and rooms 10 men, in addition to a symmasium and kitchens, were prepared. * At present, one three-story brick building, quartering about 400 soldiers were restricted to their quarters, and the unterground bunker was off-limits to only four horses were available for hauling supplies. On 29 December 1950, billeting equipment was shipped to the installation on 14 trucks of the Volkspolizei which were escorted by Soviet soldiers. No other such shippents were observed until 16 January 1951.	25X 25X 25X 25X1
3. 	a total of 196 rooms, including reception and conference rooms, and rooms loomen, in addition to a symnasium and kitchens, were prepared. * At present, one three-story brick building, quartering about 400 soldiers were restricted to their quarters, and the underground bunker was off-limits to only four horses were available for hanling supplies. Ch 29 December 1950, billeting equipment was shipped to the installation on 14 trucks of the Volkspolized which were escorted by Soviet soldiers. Ch 29 December 1950, billeting equipment was shipped to the installation on 14 trucks of the Volkspolized which were escorted by Soviet soldiers. The underground bunker is to be occupied by a manual-echelon headquarters of the Red Army.  Comment. The preparation of a bunker system at the former Falkenhage was reported previously, the latest observation was made on 19 December by mid-January 1951. There is a possibility that the bunker was designed war.	25X 25X 25X1 25X1 25X7
3. *	a total of 198 rooms, including reception and conference rooms, and rooms 10 men, in addition to a symmasium and kitchens, were prepared. * At present, one three-story brick building, quartering about 100 soldiers were restricted to their quarters, and the unterground bunker was off-limits them. The unit at the installation was not equipped with motor vehicles, only four horses were available for hauling supplies. On 29 December 1950, billeting equipment was shipped to the installation on 11 trucks of the Volkspolized which were escented by Soviet soldiers. No other such shipments were observed until 16 January 1951. The underground bunker is to be occupied by a might endequarters of the Red Army.  Pomment The preparation of a bunker system at the former Falkenham ammunition depot since May 1950, for occupation by a military headquarters 1950. The present report indicates that the bunker was ready for occupation by mid-January 1951. There is a possibility that the bunker was designed war. The present report indicates that the bunker was ready for occupation was the command post of a bigh-echelon headquarters in the event of a guard unit of about 500 men was stat- a guard unit of about 500 men was stat- tioned at the installation in mid-December 1950.	25X 25X 25X1 25X1 25X7
3. *	a total of 196 rooms, including recoption and conference rooms, and rooms 10 men, in addition to a symmasism and kitchens, were prepared. * At present, one three-story brick building, quartering about 100 soldiers wereing black-bordered crimson epaulets, is occupied. The soldiers were rostricted to their quarters, and the uncerground bunker was off-limits to only four horses were available for hauling supplies. On 29 December 1950, billeting equipment was shipped to the installation on 11 trucks of the Volkspolizei which were escorted by Soviet soldiers. No other such shipments were observed until 16 January 1951. Interpretation of a bunker system at the former Falkenhag amountation depot since May 1950, for occupation by a military headquarters by mid-January 1951. There is a possibility that the bunker was ready for occupation by an interpretation of a bunker was ready for occupation as the command post of a bigh-echelon headquarters in the event of a guard unit of about 500 men was stated to become as the command post of a bigh-echelon headquarters in the event of a guard unit of about 500 men was stated to become as the command post of a bigh-echelon headquarters in the event of a guard unit of about 500 men was stated to become as the command post of a bigh-echelon headquarters in the event of a guard unit of about 500 men was stated and the present report indicates that the bunker was ready for occupation by a guard unit of about 500 men was stated to be successed as the command post of a bigh-echelon headquarters in the event of a guard unit of about 500 men was stated to be successed as the command post of a bigh-echelon headquarters. Two sketches on ditto. Document No. 20 men was stated to the present report indicates that the bunker was designed to the present report indicates that the bunker was ready for occupation to a guard unit of about 500 men was stated to the present report indicates that the purchase report of a guard unit of about 500 men was stated to the present report indicates that	25X 25X 25X 25X1 25X7 25X7
3. *	a total of 196 rooms, including reception and conference rooms, and rooms 10 men, in addition to a symmasium and kitchens, were prepared. * At present, one three-story brick building, quartering about 100 soldiers were restricted to their quarters, and the unterground bunker was off-limits to them. The unit at the installation was not equipped with motor vehicles; only four horses were available for hauling supplies. On 29 December 1950, billeting equipment was shipped to the installation on 11 trucks of the Volkspolizei which were escorted by Soviet soldiers. No other such shipments were observed until 16 January 1951. Intro-echelon headquarters of the Red Arry.  Lomment. The preparation of a bunker system at the former Falkenhag was reported previously, the latest observation was made on 19 December by mid-January 1951. There is a possibility that the bunker was ready for occupation by an introduction of a true installation in mid-December 1950. 2 Annexes: Two sketches on either and the conference rooms, and r	25X 25X 25X 25X1 25X7 25X7

UUM MERINL

IMMEDIATELY AFTER USE

JOB5 4-306 BOX 39